

THOUGHT POLICE POLITE UNTIL HE WALKED ON GRASS

Rev. L. W. Dottie Changed
His Mind When Yanked to Station House.

ASKED FOR NUMBER.

Minister Who Complimented
Force Got Lesson in Ethics
From Magistrate.

The Rev. Lee W. Dottie, of No. 78 St. Nicholas avenue, some weeks ago, with fifteen other clergymen, made an investigation of the Night Courts and of the police. They found that the police "were a splendid, capable and efficient body of men, police and attentive to their duties."

Dr. Dottie has since altered his opinion. He said today in the afternoon Court, where he was brought as a prisoner by Policeman Galland, of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, for taking a short cut across the grass in Morningside Park. Policeman Galland's language and conduct when he made the arrest did not, said Dr. Dottie, at all bear out the language of the report so far as the "polite and attentive" part went. Very much to the contrary.

"I was walking from the heights in Morningside Park last evening Dr. Dottie told Magistrate Cornell, and found that the path I was following came to an abrupt stop at a low rail. Not realizing what a terrible thing I was about to do, I stepped over it and was about to cross a strip of grass perhaps fifteen feet wide, when this policeman stepped up to me.

"Here, you, you're breaking the law," he said, roughly. "Be a t or I'll take you along."

Dared Ask for Number.

"I was angry, I will admit, at the man's manner and actions. Had I committed murder he couldn't have been more savage. I asked him for his number."

"Ah, there you made your first mistake," commented the Magistrate, "never ask a policeman for his number. It makes him angry."

"The policeman walked over and consulted with a park employee," continued Dr. Dottie. "And then he came over to me and said: 'I'll look you up,' he said, 'and take this man along as witness,' pointing to the park attendant."

"He marched me through the streets to the police station and led me before the lieutenant at the desk."

"I want to take this guy to the Night Court," he said.

"I explained to the man behind the desk that I had an important engagement and that was one of the reasons why, in my hurry, I committed my terrible crime. The lieutenant was very polite and reasonable. He told me I could send out for bail, and I did so. The policeman, however, insisted till he was told by his superior to be quiet, that I should come to the Night Court."

"There you made another mistake," commented the Magistrate. "You should always do as a policeman wants you to do in New York. I shall honorably discharge you."

Dr. Dottie left the court, declaring that he would bring the matter to the attention of the Police Commissioner.

N. B.—There were some burglaries and a kidnapping in Harlem last night.

AUTO VICTIM DEAD.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shiel, of No. 112 Norman avenue, Greenpoint, who was run down by an automobile and seriously injured at Fifth avenue and Twenty-third street, Manhattan, last week, died of her injuries today in Bellevue Hospital.

Mrs. Shiel, who was forty-nine years old, was crossing Fifth avenue when an automobile belonging to a man named Keeler, of No. 141 West Twenty-third street, struck her. The front wheels passed over her body.

JAIL BIRD SAID HE WAS "JOHN W. GOFF"

Unfortunate Selection of New Name Earns Him a Limit Sentence.

In the line of prisoners arraigned before Judge Swann in General Sessions for sentence today was a tall, thin man, who responded to the name of John W. Goff when the clerk called the roll. The prisoner promptly pleaded to petty larceny, the theft of a horse and wagon on Sept. 1. In giving his pedigree he admitted that he had served five prison terms, three at Sing Sing, one at Elmira Reformatory and one on Blackwell's Island.

DON'T BLAME HER

For she cannot help it. Women are often cross, irritable, hysterical, and declare they are driven to distraction at the slightest provocation.

Men cannot understand why this should be so. To them it is a mystery because in nine times out of ten this condition is caused by a serious feminine derangement.

A remedy is necessary which acts directly upon the organs afflicted, restoring a healthy normal condition to the feminine system, which will quickly dispel all hysterical, nervous and irritable conditions. Such is

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

The following letter serves to prove this fact.

Mrs. Mattie Copenhaver, 315 So. 21st St., Parsons, Kan., writes:

"For two years I suffered from the worst forms of feminine ills, until I was almost driven frantic. Nothing but morphine would relieve me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me health and happiness and made me a well woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

AN APPRECIATION

An element of sentiment always attaches to the opening of a new store. It is our mind that such a hearty response on the part of the public—the words of encouragement—the wishes for success—deserve an expression of thanks and appreciation, and we employ this as a medium to tender ours. Relative to the material side—the merchandise presented—commendation ran high particularly in connection with a display of exquisite satin and broadcloth Gowns at $35—the tailored Suits at this price were pronounced also as masterful productions. The Gowns and Suits of a higher cost up to $200 and $300, elicited an admiration that is rarely accorded.

Anty Drudge Gives Advice to the Salesman.

Salesman—"I have a patent washboiler which burns dematured alcohol at much less cost than coal or wood."

Anty Drudge—"You'd better get into some other business, young man, if you want to make a living. Since I've been telling the women how to wash clothes with Fels-Naptha in cool or lukewarm water, without boiling, all kinds of washboilers have gone out of style. Good day."

Fels-Naptha will take grease out of clothes in cool or lukewarm water.

It loosens all kinds of grease quick as a wink, and takes out every trace of the spot.

That's why butchers', and painters', and machinists' clothing can be washed better with Fels-Naptha than any other way.

It's easier, too; in summer or winter, requires no boiling, hot water nor hard rubbing, and makes a better job of it.

Because Fels-Naptha dissolves grease almost instantly, women who have tried it prefer Fels-Naptha to any other soap for washing dishes.

There is no necessity for putting the hands in hot water.

Puts a fine polish on glass and china.

It is likewise superior in cleaning coats, or rugs, or curtains, or anything else that has become spotted or soiled.

In fact, you will find that anything cleanable can be cleaned quicker and better and easier with Fels-Naptha.

And for laundry purposes, Fels-Naptha is a revelation to women who have always washed in the old-fashioned, washboiler-and-hard-rubbing way.

Directions for all purposes are printed on the back of the red and green wrapper.
